What the heck is stump the somm? What the dickens is a classic wine? Classic wines are "testable" wines in the Master Sommelier Exam. Included below are two links to the wines that the court views as classic. There are plenty of delicious and great wines that the court doesn't consider classic, so drink up!

BRING IN YOUR SPECIAL WINE

we are thrilled to open up to two 750mL bottles per group for $25 per bottle. our only requests are that you don't bring in bottles that we already stock; or home/u-brew, despite how good your dad says it is. *pro tip: it's not that good. so long as you can handle that, we have some fun and games for you too:

afternoon free corkage: every day between 3:00 and 4:59 pm.

tuesday free corkage: that's right, all day. risk-free stump the somm!

stump the somm: bring in a classic wine and put alistair's palate to the test: If he can't call the region and varietal, corkage is on us.

wine bottles are 750mL, glasses are 150mL, beers are 400mL, cocktails 60mL alcohol
